

To whom it may concern

I would like to express my interest in applying for suitable position. I am interested in a position that will utilize my skills and background in Android Application Development. My goal is to enhance my career in Android App Development as intern/employee in Kathmandu.

As you will note from my enclosed resume, I have both relevant education and trainings. I have high interest on programming and designing. I also have a passion for success in everything I do.

I believe I can bring a lot to your company and I can make up for my eagerness to learn and do things right. I have enclosed my resume to provide you with details for you to review. I assure you that I will do my best to accomplish my tasks and provide results in due time.

I would also like to thank you for reviewing my resume and looking forward for your reply or meeting at your convenience. I hope that you will consider me for the appropriate position.

Yours sincerely,

Dhiraj Dahal
